

e-SMART procurement

With this notice, we inform you that Ricerca sul Sistema Energetico SpA - RSE SpA (hereinafter RSE) intends to manage a market survey aimed at identifying qualified subjects for a project management assistance service, reporting and technical advice of the e-SMART project - SMART e-mobility grid for passengers and freight transport of the last mile in the Alpine Space, in compliance with art. 36, paragraph 2 lett. B) of Legislative Decree 50/2016 and subsequent amendments and to the Guidelines no. 4 implementing the same decree, approve with resolution no. 1097 of 26 October 2016 and subsequent updates.

The project aims to contribute to a larger diffusion of e-mobility in the AS, thanks to cooperation of regional and local authorities with the private sector designing and testing an operational model to plan Electric charging stations (E-CS) and related e-mobility services in passengers and freight transports (Local Public Transport – LPT and Last Mile Freight Logistics -LML). The developed model will offer practical instruments to Public Administrations policy makers and technicians to increase energy suppliers grid capacity and, therefore, to support the growth of e-mobility options and services in transport sectors for peripheral and metropolitan area of the AS.

This notice has a specific exploratory function, in order to facilitate the consultation and participation of the largest number of operators, the qualification of the faculty to send their expression of interest in accordance with the provisions and, if in possession of the requirements below, used be invited to resign offered. It is specified that the aforementioned guess does not give rise to the establishment of legal positions and / or negotiation negotiations with RSE, which indeed reserves the right to suspend, modify or register, in whole or in part, the procedure observed and not to follow up on the subsequent procedure for the assignment of the assignment in question, without the applicants having any claim.

The contract will have a duration of 23 months, except for the possibility of withdrawal for both according to the agreed forecasts.

The all-inclusive amount of the service determined by RSE and auctioned for the award is Euro 160,000.00 (one hundred and sixty thousand / 00), excluding VAT.

Those interested in participating must send their expression of interest, together with the documentation requested, no later than 27/03/2020 at 12:00, to be understood as a peremptory deadline.

For requirement for participation, delivering rules, address and more detail on the procurement see the attached procurement sheet .

Procurement language will be Italian.