

STEYR AUSTRIA PILOT CASE STUDY

CURRENT RIVER MANAGEMENT PROCESSES

STEYR UPPER AUSTRIA 2015 | 2018

REINHOLD STOCKENHUBER

SCIENTIST, EVOLUTIONARY BIOLOGIST

“It is now necessary for humankind to fully perceive nature and to shape river landscapes in a way to allow men and nature to coexist.”

ALEXANDRA SCHWAIGER

LOCAL EVALUATOR OF PP STEYR

“It is the local community that has to be satisfied with the outcome and has to live with the results.”

CHRISTINE EHRENHUBER

PROJECT MANAGER AT TATWORT / FACILITATOR OF PP STEYR

“We offer a platform where the local community can work on common development goals for the river Steyr.”

MARIA PRANKA

HOUSEWIFE / TOURIST IN PCS

“The local community should always be involved if projects affect inhabited areas. That’s the only way to ensure that it has a strong backing of the people.”

FRANZ EHRENHUBER

RETIRED BANK MANAGER AND FORMER CHAIRMAN OF LOCAL HISTORY MUSEUM

“The Steyr is of historical importance to the region. Timber production used to be fairly important here.”

WOLFGANG BOHMAYR

PROJECT MANAGER AT PLASTICS CLUSTER UPPER AUSTRIA

“Informing and involving people helps to find good ideas together with the local population.”
